(Communication)

"I had a Dream—It was not all a Dream"

Sikes, the Secessionist, who deserted his position as Indian Agent, in the county of the residence of Joe Lane, carrying off the Government funds in his hands—said to a friend of ours: "I shall be in the Southern army, and if I meet the Union men of Oregon there I will take their lives"

These may not be the exact words of his declaration, but they embrace its substance. The statement was made to the writer by a man in whom I have all confidence, and I do not hesitate to pronounce it true

Thinking over this matter, in connection with the death of the Oregon Senator, I retired to rest and fell asleep

The past political history of Oregon and the present condition of the country, seemed to pass, like a panorama, before me I saw Oregon as she had been governed by Joe Lane for many years He had sold his power and the State to the South and as a compensation, the patronage of the National Government for this State, had been placed in his hands We all know how it was used—unscrupulously for his benefit. But a war broke out among his friends. It was bitter as death The signs to him were ominous of evil Apprehending that his political end was near, and the only hope left him, he sold his body and soul to the South

That did not save him NESMITH and BAKER were elected Senators Nothing now remained to him—but to precipitate OREGON into revolution, as Gwin, and McConnell and others, had determined should be done with CALIFORNIA

But BAKER, as in the case of Mordecai of old, sat at the gate, and this could not be accomplished BAKER's place must be made VACANT Leading disunion men, everywhere, understand each other BAKER was a man of high intellect—of surpassing eloquence—possessing great influence with the rulers of the people. It was known that he would be placed among the leaders of the armies of the Republic. Every step of his in this direction, was marked by the traitors at Washington When it was determined that he should lead a force into Virginia the fact was promptly made known to the leaders of the rebels there with the directions—"KILL HIM! KILL HIM!" So soon as he had set his foot in Virginia, an overwhelming force appeared to oppose him. A man like BAKER would lead He knew no such word as retreat FIVE HUNDRED MISSISSIPPI RIFLES WERE AIMED AT HIM. He fell pierced by eleven balls, one of which passed through his heart. HE WAS KILLED

I saw all these movements in panorama before me. I could trace the words "TO KILL," as they passed from one Secessionist to another. I saw the lightning, as it flashed the news to California and Oregon It struck the friends of the dead with horror It scarcely seemed to affect Secessionists with surprise They were soon in conclave to take advantage of his death

When BRODERICK fell, he exclaimed: "They have killed me because I was opposed to the extension of slavery, and was against a corrupt Administration"

Had BAKER been permitted to live a moment, he might have said "They have killed me because I supported the Union and the Government founded by Washington"

The place made VACANT in the Senate was now to be filled Men who had openly urged the cause of rebellion, and others who had sneakingly espoused the same cause, were ready to fill the place of BAKER An avowed sympathizer with rebellion was selected from among them for this appointment "A Kite was lodged in the Eagle's nest"

The panorama still passed on I saw clouds rising—I heard the roar of distant thunder—the lightnings flashed, and all the elements of earth were in confusion Chaos reigned. I awoke.

"I had a dream—WAS IT ALL A DREAM?"

Andy Johnson says that a band of secession miscreants came to his house, and not finding him at home, cut a hickory withe and scourged the body of his wife—Here is a specimen of the infernal miscreants sustained by the Oregon secession press

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

TUESDAY MORNING, DEC 3, 1861

The Oregonian is the only paper in the City which receives the Dispatches.

☞ Some interesting articles will be found on the first and last pages of this paper

"He that is not for us is against us"

This scripture truth gives much trouble to the secessionists They cannot stand that other great truth growing out of this, that, at this time, there are but two parties in this country, patriots and traitors This truth is recognized everywhere in the East, by democrats and republicans; by all men but secession traitors There, as here, are men who profess to believe that there is a difference between supporting the government and sustaining the union. They seek the destruction of both

In our own State, the secession party occasionally express their sentiments and their wishes in regard to the horrible war now existing Benj Stark is one of those who never disguised his opinions He was against our government—against our armies—against every measure designed to sustain the Union On the other hand he rejoiced at the success of the rebels, publicly toasted Beauregard, and declared that there was no government in the country but the confederated government.

Jeff Davis, Mason, Slidell or Gwin never expressed themselves in stronger terms, against our government, and in favor of breaking it up, in supporting the Southern rebellion, and in establishing a Southern republic, than Benjamin Stark These facts are known to our citizens They have been publicly proclaimed and no man has denied them

We are aware that now not directly, but indirectly, the impression is sought to be made that there is a distinction between the Constitutional authorities of the government, by whom the government is administered and kept in being, and the government itself,—the folly of which assumption is too manifest to require remark.

We find in a letter published in yesterday's Advertiser, dated at San Francisco the following paragraph

'The friends of Oregon and of Mr Stark—and they are many here—have heard, with great satisfaction, of his appointment as U. S. Senator We congratulate you, that you are now represented in Washington by real old Oregonians, men who have grown up with your growth and strengthened with your strength There are those here who denounce Mr Stark as a secessionist and are loud in their talk against his patriotism."

The Advertiser's California correspondence has always been of a secession stripe It sustained the election of McConnell, an avowed secessionist; it has never condemned the movements of its friends in California in collecting arms and men to strengthen the Secession cause in the East, it has never denounced Gwin for his treason; but it condemned Government for sending Sumner to take charge of the Government troops in California, when it was known that General Johnson was a traitor and was laying his plans to throw California into the hands of the rebels, it called upon God to paralyze the arm of Government in subduing treason, and it now approves of the appointment of Benjamin Stark as Senator for Oregon

We have no doubt the correspondent alluded to enjoys a great satisfaction in the appointment of a Secessionist to represent Oregon There were causes which prevented Joe Lane from going to Washington and which are well understood by the friends of the Government here; and next to Joe Lane, it was believed that Benjamin Stark would best subserve the interests of Jeff Davis, Beauregard, Mason, Gwin & Co, in Congress We accord with them in this opinion

Do our readers believe that the leaders of the Secession party in Oregon—those who made —have not correspondence with and under- our weak Governor appoint Stark as Senator stand all the leading present and projected future movements of Gwin, Lane, Slidell, Mason, and others of the same clan? If they do, they may well be certain that they are mistaken True, the information they possess is not communicated to their subordinates—but their every movement is governed by system and if the Government shall suffer some [illegible] calamity the people of Oregon will realize this truth, that there are but two parties in this country, patriots and traitors.

From an Occasional Correspondent.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON Oct 25th 1861

The whole country to-day is in sorrow at the loss of the gallant Col Baker Of the particulars of his fall, you must be already advised His funeral was the most imposing ever witnessed in this city All the principal officers of the Government and of the army and deputations from several regiments, and foreign diplomatists and citizens attended the obsequies A brother and son of the deceased, and officers of his regiment attended as mourners But the papers will furnish you the particulars of his funeral

The rebels cut off our officers in the commencement of the engagement Their men are directed to do this Their desperation has become a frenzy We have lost some of our most valiant leaders But these severe losses only nerve the nation to renewed and greater efforts. We are forced to defend our firesides and our Government We were driven to defend ourselves against desperadoes who would destroy our nation and plunder and murder our people Davis it is said, still indulges the idea, and makes his party believe, that he will take possession of this city That will not be done.

"God only know what is to become of our Southern people It seems as though [illegible]—it was in their very souls Their cause is most desperate, and ruin and destruction stares them in the face every where In fighting, they seem intent upon killing our leaders. They are undoubtedly informed of the names of the leaders of our regiments,—their persons are described—and the bullets are made to rain upon them

"But our forces are cool and are girding themselves to the task that is before them. An anxious country has its eyes upon them. We must protect our Government, our Union, and our glorious old flag and we will do it Give us time, and all will be well

"If you send a Senator here send one who is for this war If you send one who is for peace, or one who does not come up squarely to the work he will stand alone on the floor Your Representative is for peace and a surrender of our national dignity and honor—and he is almost solitary in the House He cannot do a thing as he stands—standing as he does in opposition to all the members of the House

'This war will end in the triumph of the nation—and what will then become of the traitors and their sympathizers?'"

WHAT OUR ARMY ON THE POTOMAC EATS IN A WEEK —The New York Journal of Commerce in speaking of the supplies our army receive on the Potomac from that city, says:

The most ponderous item of the supplies weekly contracted for, inspected and sent to the hungry mouths on the Potomac, is meat in kind and proportion about as follows 1,000 bbls mess pork 1,700 bbls extra mess beef 34 tons bacon sides; do of smoked hams, and (a duly prized delicacy) 125 bbls pickled beef tongues—of the first quality Of succulent and nutritious miscellanies, there are 1,500 bushels of white beans (strongly suggestive of a certain Yankee dish), [illegible] bushels of split peas (palatable in soup) 60,000 pounds of rice and 50,000 pounds of white flint corn hominy The fortifying qualities of coffee are recognized in the purchase of 50,000 pounds prime Rio, and 120,000 pounds of the same roasted and ground

The drink that cheers but not inebriates,' is provided for by 4,500 pounds of tea, green oolong and souchong in equal proportions To sweeten both these beverages, 180,000 lbs of dry, light yellow sugar are considered not too liberal an allowance, and [illegible] gallons more of saccharine matter is furnished in the shape of good molasses, or syrup, as a condiment for the rice, and toothsome and healthy in other relations.

The soldier is regaled with only one species of preserved fruit, which taken with a little water, is said to possess extraordinary fattening properties We allude to dried apples of which 10,000 pounds are weekly forwarded The formidable list concludes with 40,000 pounds first quality of bread

THE NEW YORK "CAUCASIAN," VICE THE "DAY BOOK" DEFUNCT —The New York Day Book having been refused postoffice facilities for transmission by mail, on account of its Secession proclivities, the proprietors started a new journal, called the Caucasian, in which they say "It is impossible for us to say when we shall resume the publication of the Weekly Day Book as that depends upon circumstances over which we have no control We will supply however all who desire it, the Caucasian in place of the Day Book This is the very best we can do"

A San Francisco paper states that the officers of the revenue cutter Joe Lane are to be transported to the steamer Shubrick.

CAPTURE OF FORT ROYAL AND BEAUFORT —The San Francisco Bulletin says —'It is difficult to overestimate the importance of what this glorious expedition has already accomplished The position of the Federal army at Beaufort, menacing two great rebel cities, one on each hand, will make it necessary for Jeff Davis to keep two great armies for the relief of South Carolina and Georgia [illegible] Savannah [illegible] Charleston [illegible] will fall, not while Jeff Davis [illegible] to sail from New York [illegible] welcomed [illegible] of New Orleans [illegible] will be rare music in the [illegible] navy yard in the [illegible] of the grand results of the Great Naval Expedition is received. And thus [illegible] November—the day appointed by Jeff Davis for a season of fasting and prayer—we need not telegraphic dispatches [illegible] gloomily kept in all his [illegible] minions

The resignation of [illegible] in law of Gen Adair and his son, who were educated at West Point shows the necessity of Government being very particular in admitting students to that institution We give it as our opinion that no man recommended by George K Shiel should ever be admitted to West Point.

It is still a question whether the Legislature of Washington Territory will sit at Vancouver or Olympia The supreme court will be likely to hold their term at the latter place. Judge Wyche has left for Olympia

A recent census of the Nez Perces tribes of Indians, make their number about 2800—of which over 2200 are entirely friendly to the whites "Eagle of the Day" has control of the remainder

Capt D P. Thompson takes charge of the enrolment of volunteers at Oregon City He is equally at home in cavalry and infantry tactics

It is understood that Lieut Mullan has written that the troops cannot be brought down from the mountains the present winter

The Argus has a notice of a Republican paper being about to be started at Eugene City

The Unio, Capt, [illegible] is now making regular trips from Canemah to Lafayette

Thanksgiving Day was observed at Oregon City

Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1.—The Regular Monthly Meeting of Vigilance H & L Co No 1 will be held at the Truck House this evening at 7½ o'clock A full attendance is requested as business of much importance will be transacted

CITY.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—In consequence of the session of the Circuit Court, and most of the attorneys being engaged there, this Court adjourned over till Thursday morning.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Henry Fuller vs J. L. Brumley. Motion for change of venue to Lane county, on the ground that contract sued on was made and defendant resides in Lane county—though served in Multnomah. Motion overruled. The rest of the day was consumed in the trial of the State of Oregon vs. Mary Champanoy and Robt Sutherland. Indictment by the Grand Jury, charging defendants with fornication. Jury trial—verdict, guilty, as charged in the indictment. The cause of the State of Oregon vs. Robert Sutherland, was set for trial to day.

The County Commissioners Court adjourned till Monday next.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—Yesterday was the day appointed by law for the members of the F. Department to elect one Chief and two Assistant Engineers; an election was held at the house of Multnomah No. 2. Everything went off quietly, no rivalry was exhibited. Scarcely one third of the members voted at all. The following is the result for Chief Engineer:

L. M. Starr, 58 votes, E. J. Northrup 1; T. Davis, 1; C. Elwert, 1; T. Nealy, 1.

For Assistant Engineer, M. M. Lucas, 36; P. D. W. Hardenburg, 35, E. J. Northrup, 2; T. Davis, 8; W. Daly 18, J. Bergman, 2; T. Nealy, 4, H. Rosenfield, 2, J. Bachman, 1.

None of the above gentlemen were candidates for the position.

THE STORM AND ITS EFFECTS.—The quantity of rain which has fallen in the past week, has caused the river to rise to an alarming height, so much so that it is feared great damage has been done along its banks. During the rains, the wind has blown, at times, a perfect hurricane.

Messrs. Haybough & Stutzel, of the lower steam saw-mill, on Sunday night, had the misfortune to lose a raft of logs, containing about twelve hundred thousand feet of lumber, valued at about six thousand dollars. Yesterday afternoon we noticed a portion of an ice house floating by the city. A part of the piles driven for the new wharf of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, have been carried away by the drift wood. Yesterday afternoon the Dry Dock, across the river opposite this city, broke from its moorings and floated down the river some distance. In many places, the river is over its banks, and is still rising rapidly, with a very heavy current.

It is supposed the ocean steamer which is now believed to be in the river,—and the Julia, did not get in last night on account of the drift wood and darkness.

SINGING CLASS.—Mr. H. Law, will commence a singing class in the Presbyterian church this evening. All who wish to join are invited to attend.

The assay office in this city has about as much business, most of the time, as it can do. The bars of gold that now come out of that office show what our friends are doing in the mines.

We are glad to say that Mrs. Buchtel, who was lately severely burnt by the explosion of a fluid lamp, is in a fair way for recovery.—Her husband is now able to attend to his business as an artist at the gallery of Messrs. Buchtel & Cardwell, and who are well known to be the best artists on the coast. They have recently made some improvements in their gallery and in the conveniences for doing their work. Their arrangements are such that they can do work in cloudy as well as in clear weather, and gentlemen and ladies, who desire pictures, can avail themselves of this season of leisure for the purpose. They have many curiosities in natural history in their gallery which will amuse our citizens for an hour.

The Question Settled.

HAVING just returned from San Francisco, I have the pleasure of informing the public that my Gold Bars will be received at Par Value!

by the following Bankers and Assayers in San Francisco:

[illegible] & Church,
S. Molitor & Co.,

Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs A. M. Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its proprietor far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of Europe the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science and they occupy with others an equally lofty position in the profession. [illegible] among the philosophical [illegible] of the age in Europe and Dr. Czapkay has fully qualified him in this country, as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma of the honorary [illegible] degree. Selecting this as his field [illegible] qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of [illegible], nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in correspondence, please enclose $10 in their letters and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.

A PLEASANT MEDICINE.—Rev B J Bettelheim, M. D., now of Cayuga, Illinois, says:

"As an M. D., I can tell all those who have much preaching to do—to try the use of raw yolks swallowed fresh as they come out of the white. A little practice will teach one to separate yolk from white, leaving the former in one half of the egg-shell, from which it is supped in best. I preached in London, England, three every Sabbath (and often four times) for three years and upwards, using often a dozen yolks in the same day, and my voice felt as fresh in the evening as in the morning, and clearer and stronger."

At the marriage of the Count d'Artois, the city of Paris agreed to furnish marriage portions. A sweet little girl of sixteen, named Lise Moirin, having presented herself to inscribe her name on the list, was asked who was her lover. "Oh," said she with great simplicity, "I have no lover; I thought the city furnished everything."

A good one is told of a Quaker volunteer, who was in a Virginia skirmish. Coming in pretty close quarters with a rebel, he remarked—"Friend, it's unfortunate, but thee stands just where I am going to shoot," and blazing away, down came secesh.

Of all diseases, the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Spermatorrhea in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, Diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancer, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from [illegible] such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pain in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—all [illegible] of both sexes. [illegible] cause the disease [illegible] at [illegible] the case [illegible] than a permanent [illegible] physicians [illegible] said [illegible] During [illegible] the best and [illegible] I have [illegible] in the last stages of the above named diseases had been given up [illegible] signs which [illegible] will [illegible] place themselves under my [illegible] health [illegible] A permanent cure [illegible] the hands of an impotent constitution [illegible] with [illegible] which will [illegible] and the disease [illegible] the [illegible] on the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human [illegible] so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

The afflicted are reminded of all diseases of males and females treated by him, during fifteen years of practice and thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State or Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three persons rescued from the jaws of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and, their statements authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of suffering humanity command their publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of advising those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr L J Czapkay, for the recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of unrestrained passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas, after a few weeks, and in some instances months of their treatment, I found, to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by some that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict observance of all his directions and advice my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful exciting and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago, I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that a full trial under his care, a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not quite got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and allay the nervousness so that I would not get excited and tired about everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from the symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the discharge, especially of those ones which you said were the first cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having yet got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, as I think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may put this letter in the newspaper. Believe me gratefully yours,

THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which I deem worthy of commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but also of humanity. About two years ago, I suddenly, from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which owing to my inability to meet the expense consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my business, thrown to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet keenly felt the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state, and having previous to my illness tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to try seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my disease, and of my inability to reward him for his services, which however he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I feel it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
